

Day	Date	Start Time	End Time	Activity
Friday	28			Travel in
Saturday	1 Day 1: Arrival & Scenic Exploration			Zion Visitor Center – Get park maps, toddler-friendly recommendations, and shuttle info.
				Pa'rus Trail (1.7 miles one way, stroller-friendly) – A paved, easy trail along the Virgin River with great views.
				Riverside Walk (2.2 miles round trip) – A shaded walk leading to the entrance of The Narrows; great for letting your toddler splash in the shallow water.
Sunday	2 Day 2: Lower Canyon & Easy Hikes			Canyon Scenic Drive (via Shuttle or Car, seasonal) – A beautiful drive with multiple stops.
				Weeping Rock Trail (0.4 miles round trip) – A very short but rewarding hike to a dripping rock alcove.
				Emerald Pools Trail (Lower Pool Only) (1.2 miles round trip) – A toddler-friendly, shaded trail with waterfalls and pools.
				Lunch: Pack a picnic at Grotto Picnic Area near the Virgin River.
				Checkerboard Mesa (Drive & Stop) – A cool geological formation on the Zion-Mt. Carmel Highway.
Monday	3 Day 3: Kolob Canyons or More Zion Fun			Option 1: Kolob Canyons (Less Crowded, Scenic Drive)
				A 45-minute drive to Kolob Canyons for stunning red rock views and short walks like Timber Creek Overlook Trail (1 mile round trip).
				Option 2: More Zion Exploration
				Grotto Trail (1 mile round trip) – Flat, easy, and great for spotting wildlife.
				Zion Human History Museum – A great indoor break with exhibits on the park's history.
				Play at the Virgin River – Perfect for a toddler to wade in shallow waters.
Tuesday	4 Day 4 (Optional): Relaxed Departure
				Drive through Zion-Mt. Carmel Tunnel – A stunning drive with pull-offs for photos.
				Stop at the Many Pools Trail (if dry, it's an easy, toddler-friendly stroll).
				Canyon overlook

Wednesday	5			Fly back home				